

Do you want more involvement with the most influential voice in the UK structured product industry?

BECOME A CORPORATE PARTNER OF THE UK STRUCTURED PRODUCTS ASSOCIATION (UKSPA)

UKSPA is a membership organisation that brings together manufacturers and distributors of structured products to develop and improve the industry. Our mission is to help the structured products industry achieve the highest standards in terms of transparency, consistency and robust governance, and to help investors and advisers access all the information they need to make informed investment decisions.

With current members representing many of the largest banks and financial institutions in the world, UKSPA is the voice of the structured products industry in the UK. We bring together our members to collaborate on a range of topics, from regulatory changes like Consumer Duty, through to marketing initiatives like consumer education, and we work closely with a number of external organisations including the FCA, HM Treasury and various UK trade bodies.

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

UKSPA is now offering corporate partnership to firms involved in the UK structured product landscape: whether you're a law firm supporting providers and distributors, a source of education and information within the community or a provider of specialist software, this is your opportunity to join the UK's leading structured product professionals.

Our corporate partners will receive various benefits:

- Invitations to participate in workstreams relevant to your area of business, to help shape industry thinking
- A full profile page on the UKSPA website
- Use of a UKSPA Partner logo
- Opportunities to showcase your services directly to UKSPA members and investment professionals signed up for our communications
- Access to relevant information produced by UKSPA which is not publicly available (e.g. market research, whitepapers)

Partner Fees are fixed at £5,000 a year.
